PHI Welcomes Two New Board Members

Two new members have been named to the Post-Polio Health International board of directors.

Carol B. Vandenakker-Albanese, MD, is a Health Sciences Clinical Professor, Residency Program Director and the Director in the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation; and the Director of the Post-Polio Clinic at the University of California, Davis Medical Center. She established a post-polio clinic at the University of Miami in 1993. With her move to Sacramento in 2001, she continued her post-polio practice by establishing a post-polio clinic at the UC Davis Medical Center. She is board-certified in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. Her clinical practice encompasses diagnosis and non-operative treatment of spine conditions and post-polio related problems. Her research and publications have focused on exercise, post-polio syndrome and aging with a disability. She serves as the medical advisor for the San Francisco Bay Area and Sacramento polio support groups and serves on the medical advisory board for PHI. She lectures locally and nationally on issues regarding polio survivors.

Padma Hirandani Reichwald, MS-SBB, is a polio survivor and has been a Member of PHI since 1988. She is Chairperson of Heart and Hands for the Handicapped (www.hhnonline.org), a not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization founded in 1971 and run by volunteers. HHH raises funds to support organizations in India and the United States that empower children with physical or mental challenges. The $30,000 per year raised for polio patients in India funds surgery and therapy at an average of $250 per patient. Prior to retiring, she helped run transfusion services at a New York City hospital.
